

Caribbean Yacht Charters, a Look at How and Why

Contributed by First Name
Thursday, 09 July 2009
Last Updated Thursday, 09 July 2009

By Rumble Romagnoli

Spending time with loved ones and or friends on a vacation in a private chartered yacht is the ultimate life-time experience which most of us might dream to have but very few lucky ones actually get to have that experience. This is because of the cost involved in hiring private chartered yacht is relatively much higher than other travel plans. But when it comes to the pleasure and the experience, cost becomes secondary.

There are quite a number of ways to enjoy a vacation at a place away from the home and not disturbed by the day-to-day routines. One may choose an air-trip or a cruise in a ship for an exotic location to have a vacation. But the experience and fulfillment one can derive from hiring a private charter yacht and enjoying the holiday experience is the ultimate one.

There are a number of exotic locations across the world where travel vacations can be spent on private chartered yachts. Some of such exotic locations include the British Virgin Islands, Caribbean islands, Islands in Bahamas, Turkey, Croatia, South of France and Mediterranean region.

/>

The Caribbean islands in the Atlantic Ocean offer the best of life experience for travelers on a private chartered yacht. A Caribbean yacht charter is a perfect one to choose among the yacht charters simply for the reason that the climate is excellent, and the water is just ideal for activities such as swimming, sailing and diving.

Yachts charter is one of the thriving businesses in the Caribbean islands with more than 1,000 motor yachts as well as sailboats are being offered for plying on the seas on a charter basis. Most of these charter yachts are hired for a week-long period. In addition to the small group of private friends and family members, the charter yacht will have a crew not only for operating the vessel but also for cooking and serving meals for the members on the vacation.

The only thing the members of the yacht charter need to do after hiring the yacht charter is to just enjoy the exotic ride and the breathtaking natural beauty that is on offer. In order to have a life-time experience, one should plan the vacation well in advance, possibly 3 months or 6 months ahead of the trip to avoid any disappointment. An experienced broker must be in a position to guide you through the travel plan to make the trip a memorable one. Not just booking of the Caribbean yacht charter, but even the food you prefer to have while on sea, the beverages, wine, snacks and or other special foods can be organized and kept stored in refrigerators at the time of traveling, just to make the yacht charter more enjoyable.

The ideal time for planning a Caribbean yacht charter is the month of February when the sea will be calm and the climate just perfect for sailing. In addition to yacht charter, Caribbean boat charter and Caribbean catamaran charter are also available for hiring, which can also be considered for making the exotic voyage more pleasurable and enjoyable.

Dolmen Yachts specialise in Caribbean yacht charters in the Caribbean. Ask your captain about BVI yacht charter, Grenadines yacht charter, Tahiti yacht charter and caribbean catamaran charters.

Yacht And Jet Charter

{mos_sb_discuss:2}